

The background of the cover is a detailed illustration. It depicts a historical scene where three characters are positioned on a large, ornate stone balcony or terrace. On the left, a woman with blonde hair, wearing a white blouse and a brown vest, holds a long rifle. In the center, a man in a grey military uniform with a bicorne hat aims a telescope. To his right, another man in a red vest and white shirt also looks through a telescope. The balcony is part of a grand building with a large, green, domed roof topped with a golden finial. In the background, a cityscape with various domes and spires is visible under a sky with soft clouds. A small, yellow biplane flies in the upper right. A small explosion or fire is visible on the left side of the domed roof.
